TYBO SENDING OUT ELEVEN TONS A DAY

The Louisiana Con. Mining company is getting down to business with the new mill at Tybo and the shipments of concentrates are coming in regularly every day at the rate of seven tons of concentrates valued at $100 a ton and four tons of high grade ore estimated to be worth around $75 a ton. By the end of next week it is expected that the mill will be treating 100 tons daily, which will result in a 25 per cent increase in the shipments. Yesterday a carload of mixed concentrates and ore was sent out billed to the Western Ore Purchasing company with Salt Lake as the ultimate destination. This car contained thirty tons of concentrates and twenty-five tons of ore. The company has seventy-five men on the payroll in all departments.

BRAVE STORM TO SEE LIBERTY LADS OFF ON PATRIOTIC MISSION

Although the number of recruits going out this morning was the smallest since the brave lads of Nye county began heading in the direction of the training camps there was no lack of loyalty. The demonstration was as pronounced and emphatic as though the day was a balmy one in June and the ground underfoot as perfect as the skies overhead. The weather was about as ugly as ever experienced on the desert. A raw wind blew from the northwest, the skies overcast and a fitful snow added to the muddy conditions of the street which was covered with about three inches of slush.

At 8 o'clock Harry Glass, county clerk, met Martin Abello and Tommy Hyland with credentials and transportation. Shortly after the Musicians' Union sounded the assembly from the front steps of the Misap Hotel and, after discoursing inspiring patriotic airs for half an hour, waited for the formation of the parade. At 8:30 sharp the Boy Scouts and Campfire Girls swung into Main street from Bryan avenue, marching in fours like veterans, keeping step and holding heads erect and shoulder to shoulder just as though they were out for a good time. Through the mud they came until reaching the front of the hotel when Major Cross called "Halt." The band fell in at the head. That veteran of seventy-three winters, Ed Harmer, nothing daunted by the weather, took his place with the flag that has heralded the going of every band of recruits from Nye county, the recruits following. Two ladies of the Women's Relief Corps took their positions behind the band, the command was given and to the inspiring strains of "Johnny Come Marching Home," the procession moved in the direction of the depot. The rear was brought up by a gallant little band of citizens who were not afraid of wetting their shoes in seeing the boys off.

The spirit of the occasion was impressive since it carried with it the lesson that Tonopah is with the boys from the start to finish regardless of weather or conditions. It was a good send off and the two lads showed their deep appreciation as the train moved out to the shrieking of whistles and screaming of sirens just as though there had been a full battalion dispatched to the front. Ben Luce who was among the marchers, made a few remarks at the depot building bidding the boys God speed.

A collection taken up on the platform netted the Liberty boys a handsome sum of cigarette money.

Mr. Luce spoke as follows: "Friends, relatives and sweethearts, this should be the proudest moment of your lives—proud of your boys here about to entrain upon the noblest mission of man, a God-given heritage to fight for life and liberty.

"You, my boys, are going out to protect the most sacred rights of our nation. It is the turning point in your lives, where the opportunity for great achievement is unparalleled in the history of the world. You are becoming a part of the making of world-wide democracy and the names of America will shine in history as a sky studded with a million flashing stars.

"And you, mothers, must know as you send your sons into the welter of the world that back of this supreme sacrifice shines the glory and joy of world freedom—have no fear, it will not be long ere we will be standing here cheering their return as conquering heroes. Let's cheer them on their way. Let the band play 'The Star-Spangled Banner.'"

WARM DRY SOCKS FOR THE SAMMIES

Suppose you had been obliged to get up this morning and tramp miles through the wet snow without dry, warm socks? And that you had to do that day after day because there were no socks to be had? That is what our soldiers, who are placing themselves as a living wall between us and the numerous Huns, have to do when we don't send them socks enough.

The Eagles, who are always helping somebody, don't like this idea at all and on the evening of the fifteenth they are going to give a dance, the entire proceeds of which will go to the Red Cross. With the money so raised, knitting machines will be purchased that can turn out beautifully made socks with marvelous rapidity and precision.

Think of the boys in the cold, wet trenches and go to the Eagles' dance.

MAY FLOWERS BURIED UNDER SNOW MANTLE

The early gardener who was so eager last week to get in a bunch of truck to save the old H. C. O. L. was treated to a frost last night that brought tears to his eyes for there was no getting away from the weather which covered the ground with snow to a depth of two and a half inches, official measurement, according to the weather bureau. Old-timers found satisfaction in rehearsing storms that occurred in the past but the government states there never has been anything either as severe or with snow so deep as the May storm of three years ago when on the night of April 30th and running well into the following morning there fell twenty-one inches of snow. The temperature dropped to 18 degrees, while last night the lowest reading was 25 degrees.

However, there is one feature about last night's storm which was the heaviest on record for so late in May. The only other previous storm was noted in the records in 1908 when three inches of snow fell on May 2.

BELMONT NET EARNINGS, 1917

the new company, the Belmont Surf Inlet Mines, Limited, of which this company owns 80 per cent. It is estimated that $10,548.75 more will be required to complete certain unfinished construction. The Belmont Surf Inlet Mines, Limited, took over the Surf Inlet property on September 1, 1917, on which date production started, and it should be a source of regular income to your company for many years.

"The Belmont Shawmut Mining company was organized to take over the option owned by your company and the Jim Butler Tonopah Mining company upon the Eagle Shawmut mine, which is expected to start production about May 1, 1918. The net income from this property for the present will be applied toward the payment of the balance of the purchase price. Your company owns 75 per cent and the Butler company owns 25 per cent of the Belmont Shawmut Mining company.

"The Belmont Wagner Mining company was formed to take over the option held by your company and the Jim Butler Tonopah Mining company on the Wagner properties. Production should start about June 1, 1918, after which the total amount expended by your company and the Butler company upon the property, including payments on account of purchase price, will be refunded from 50 per cent of the net income. After all expenditures shall have been repaid, the former owners will receive the balance of the purchase price from 50 per cent of the net income. Your company owns 562,500 shares, the Butler company owns 187,500 shares, and the former owners own 250,000 shares of the Belmont Wagner Mining company.

"During the year the exploration department in charge of the consulting geologist, considered 205 different properties with the view of possible purchase. Of these properties 147 were rejected without physical examination, after careful consideration of reports, maps and other data. The remaining fifty-eight properties were examined and sampled as thoroughly as the ore showings justified. Metallurgical tests were made upon the ores from ten of these properties. Of the properties examined only two were taken over under option, the Alta-St. Louis-Palmayra group and the Andrus group of claims, known as the Wagner properties.

"The development of the Emma mine, Dolores, county, Colorado, did not prove satisfactory and the option was relinquished. The prospecting of the properties lying to the east of the Belmont mine, by drilling, was continued until June, 1917, with negative results, so that work was discontinued and the option allowed to lapse.

"Your attention is called to the very large increase in federal taxes as shown on the income account and balance sheet. Corporate taxes paid during the past fiscal year, due to the increase in the income tax under act of congress approved October 3, 1917, which was retroactive, the additional income and excess profits taxes for the fiscal year ended February 28, 1917, amount to $29,801.82. Under this law the income and excess profits taxes for the fiscal year ended February 28, 1918, amount to $75,854.48."

GOLD REEF COMPANY HAS FOUR CLAIMS

The Gold Reef mine which was listed yesterday in San Francisco is owned chiefly by R. G. (Dick) Williams, the veteran trouble shooter of the Western Union, who located four claims in the Divide district eleven years ago and continued doing his assessment work with strong legitimate development that would count when it came to the time when events justified opening the property in a commercial scale. The Gold Reef adjoins the Gold Zone on the south at the foot of the canyon which everybody knows from the presence of the small house and well on the left side of the road while traveling to Goldfield.

Mr. Williams has associated himself with several San Francisco men who investigated the surroundings and came to the conclusion that the Williams group was one of the best in the district. The Gold Reef company is retrimbering the shaft to a depth of 100 feet and next week will begin installing machinery for active sinking. Four men are employed on the job and the number will be increased as fast as the work requires it. The company is capitalized for 1,000,000 shares with 400,000 in the treasury.

CLEARING UP THE "76" DEADLOCK

While Judge Averill is down on the coast he has arranged with Walter Harris to meet him there for the purpose of holding a conference with the Borax Smith interests with the object of effecting a possible working agreement with the West End company to operate the Tonopah Seventy-six. The property adjoins the California claim of the West End mine which is turning out some of the best ore produced in this camp through the Ohio shaft and it is held by those interested in the Seventy-six that there is more than a possibility of the ledge continuing into the ground of the junior company.

Averill and Harris hold the balance of power among stockholders and the West End owns 450,000 shares out of the total issue of 1,250,000 shares.

AMUSEMENTS

Two famous stars—Madge Evans and Henry Hull—appear in "The Volunteer," the new World picture which will be shown at the Butler tonight.

Madge is the most clever child actress now appearing on the screen. Mr. Hull is a famous stage success. Each of them has a powerful role in "The Volunteer" and they will both add many new friends to their admirers by their work in this production.

This new motion picture is a most unusual attraction. In it Madge Evans appears as herself, a successful child star for World pictures. Her supposed father and mother enlist respectively in the army and in the Red Cross and Madge goes to live with her grand-parents. There she meets her uncle, Jonathan, played by Henry Hull, and though Jonathan is a Quaker, he enlists to help Uncle Sam in the great war. This leads to interesting and unusual incidents, all of which are entertaining.

"The Volunteer" is one of the most unusual and most delightful pictures ever filmed. It is a real treat. See it. With this five-part feature will also be shown a new comedy, a new comedian, and it is some comedy. You will like it. It will last thirty minutes and each minute will be a roar for you. It is a Alice Howe comedy; watch for it tonight. Tomorrow Edith Storey will again be with us in "The Eyes of Mystery," also a good comedy, a Sunshine comedy, "Her Husband's Wife." Sunday Alice Brady.

PAY DAY BRINGS ITS MESSAGE OF CHEER

This is the day when everybody smiles and the glad hand greets the man with the paycheck as he comes downtown from his labors. The aggregate of the money released today isn't quite as great as last month owing to the presence of so much illness which, while not serious, caused many men to lay off for a few days to protect themselves from the consequence of exposure. In spite of all these drawbacks it is estimated that something over $400,000 went into circulation through settlement of company accounts and the payment of wage-earners. Some of the money went toward payment of Liberty bonds taken on the installment plan and what did not go on deposit in either of the banks went to the business men in wiping out monthly scores.

BRINGS A DODGE SEDAN

Jack Hand, of the Tonopah Auto Supply company, came in last evening with a brand new Dodge sedan which he received from the distributing agent at Reno. On the return trip Miss Jennie Howson and Miss Leslie Wardle were traveling companions as the young ladies were returning from the university to spend the vacation with their parents in Tonopah.
